

His Worship the Mayor
JOHN M. MOORE
Aldermen and Old Boys of the CITY of LONDON, ONTARIO, CANADA Request you to Come On Home

for the Grand Centennial Celebration of the City of London and
Home Coming of Former Londoners TO BE HELD IN LONDON, CANADA, JULY 31st TO AUGUST 7th 1926
A MUSICAL INVITATION COMPOSED BY WILFRED TRAHER

PUBLISHED BY
W. C. TRAHER,
LONDON, CANADA.

Introduced and sung with great success by Mr. Eric Chapman of London accompanied by Mr. Russell Patten and his orchestra over Radio Station C J G C The London Free Press.

Come On Home

OFFICIAL SONG

For London's Centennial Celebration

Adopted by the Finance Committee of the London Centennial and Home Coming of Former Londoners

Words and Music by

WILFRED TRAHER

Introduction

Moderato

Till ready

When you hear "Way down up-on the
For one hun-dred years up-on the Swa - nee riv-er," Then in thought you wan - der back home, — And you

'old Thames riv-er, Fath - er Time has watch'd Lon-don grow, — And we're dream of days that now are gone for - ev - er, In the land where ev - er you proud to claim it as our old home ci - ty, Ev - 'ry place where ev - er we

Copyright MCMXXVI by Wilfred Charles Traher
All Rights Reserved International Copyright Secured.
Printed in the U. S. A.

roam; — And you oft - en say "I'll go home some day," Then as go, — You may trav - el east, you may trav - el west, But the time rolls on you still re - main a - way; But this is Lon - don's cen - old home town of Lon - don is the best. So you must all "Come On rall.

ten - nial Year, So you all must come home with - out de - lay. — Home" this year, Ev - 'ry one will be Lon - don's wel - come guest. —

CHORUS 1st time, Solo, moderato
2nd time, Chorus, allegro
There's an old home town in Can - a - da, Where the old folks wel - come you home,

1st time p moderato
2nd time f allegro

Mail this "Musical Invitation" to your friends and boost London by having it sung over your nearest radio station.

Back to Lon-don in On - tar - i - o, You must come where ev - er you roam,

May you all come back, with a roll of jack, And a kiss for mam - my with a big loud smack, Sing - ing "Hail, hail, the gang's all here, For there's no place like home." There's an home."

